What the Lodges Are Doing

GRAND MASTER'S VICTORY MESSAGE TO ALBERTA LODGES

Since my last message to the lodges of this jurisdiction we have had the great satisfaction and joy of final victory to the Allied nations in the European war, and to those who, in the last five years have had their lives darkened and full of sorrow while being in prison camps and held in domination by our enemy. What a glory it is to have the light of freedom shine upon their faces once again as they are being released from bondage.

But let us not forget to share the sorrow with those who have been more unfortunate in losing members of their families in that great struggle for freedom in order that we may enjoy the peace that has cost the lives of so many of our dear ones, and to those families we extend our deepest sympathy and ask that we may be permitted to share the sorrow in the homes in which this sadness has come.

I trust that each and every lodge will not forget to carry out my wishes in respect to observing our Memorial Service as it is one of our most important proclamations.

Our Good Will Proclamation could not be better acknowledged than by recognizing our victory in addition to its general purpose. And last, but not least, the welcome of our boys from the Western war theatre. Let us all show that we appreciate what they have done for us in this great struggle.

Fraternally yours,

CHARLES FOX, Grand Master.

Hillhurst Lodge's 36th Anniversary

I suppose the thoughts that have had first place in our minds lately are those concerning the defeat of our enemies in Europe. It was indeed a great achievement and we have reason to be elated, but let us pause for a moment in our festivities to give thanks to our God who has made this possible. Let us not forget those who have made the supreme sacrifice, yes indeed, they have given their all, that we might enjoy freedom of religion, speech and those things we enjoy in our everyday life. Let us also pray to Almighty God, asking that he will comfort and protect those who have been bereaved because of this conflict just ended.

We have not now time to rest on our arms, but rather we should roll up our sleeves a little farther to tackle the enemy which is still at our door. We, as Odd Fellows, also have a job to do, that of looking after our brothers who will be returning, not only from overseas, but those, who for some reason were unable to get into the actual fighting, but whose services were required in this and other countries. They in no less degree helped to bring about this day of victory. To all of these we must now do our duty and see that they are properly taken care of.

The 36th anniversary of the institution of Hillhurst Lodge was held April 18. Some 150 members and their friends gathered in our hall to celebrate the occasion. Among those from the Grand Lodge and seated at the head table were the Grand Master, Chas. Fox; Grand Warden W. C. Gordon, D.D.G.M. A. E. Palfrey. The eats were real good—meats, salads, pie and ice cream, and all those extras in between which go to decorate the main dishes. Miss Alice Murdock and her pupils provided the entertainment. Dancing, acrobatic and tumbling acts thrilled the audience. Some of the members were a little nervous as to whether the stage would support so much first class talent. Dancing in the lower hall rounded out a swell evening and everyone went home happy and satisfied.

Degree work has occupied the most prominent part of our lodge activities for the past few weeks. We initiated two new members April 26. Went to Cochrane May 1 and assisted Bow Valley 89 initiate four members. Went to Crescent Lodge and put on the initiatory degree on five members from Crossfield 42. Last Thursday we had a full house when we conferred the first degree on all of the aforementioned members, quite like old times. Friday, May 11, Alberta No. 1 trotted out their degree team and conferred the second degree on these brothers. No doubt the correspondent of that lodge will give a full report. After we have conferred the third degree we are going through the same procedure as we have three applications on the table at the time of writing, but we take our hats off to Bow Valley 89 as I understand they have six more.

Well, I guess it's about time to sign off again, but before doing so I would like the editor of the Alberta Odd Fellow to know what the members down here say about his paper. Such remarks I have heard—"It's dandy." "A swell paper." "I read it from cover to cover," and lots of other good things, and when a satisfied customer gets a good thing he tells his neighbor and so on. This lodge is going to send a copy to all of its members resident outside of the city in order that our members may be kept up to date on lodge matters, so now you correspondents from other lodges let us know what your lodge is doing. We will read it and it's free advertising, too.

Viaduct Lodge Busy With Degree Work

Officers and members of Viaduct No. 53 of Lethbridge, although a little late, take this opportunity of extending congratulations to the editor and staff of the Alberta Odd Fellow, for the splendid paper they are turning out each month.

We at the southern end of the province, though perhaps not heard from very often, are still keeping up the fine work of Odd Fellowship. We have taken in several candidates lately and have more lined up now, so we are going to be kept pretty busy with degree work for the next month or so.

A few weeks ago the degree team made a trip to Granum and conferred the third degree on nine candidates. They were from the three Foot Hills lodges, Granum, Stavely and Claresholm. You can be well assured that it was a banner night for Unity Lodge of Granum. They had a wonderful meeting and entertained all of the visitors in a royal manner. The boys of Viaduct degree team will be only too pleased to get another invitation to go back again.

Attendance at Meetings this term has been exceptionally good and now the boys are returning from overseas we will further increase this attendance.—C. J. Pankhurst.

Friendship Lodge to Install Officers

Well folks, spring is here at last, or is it? Seems like perhaps we should move the North Pole a little farther north or something, and maybe we would have more springlike weather. One thing is sure, this has been anything but a model spring season as we know it in Edmonton. Then, too, the extra warm air that has pervaded the countryside for the past while back seems to have dried out the ground to quite an extent, so that in short, what we would really like to see is more rain for the Victory gardens.

Friendship Lodge No. 7, Edmonton, has been quiet during the spring months, and we are now looking forward to vacation time. At our regular meeting held on June 5 it was decided by resolution that our lodge would not meet on the nights of June 19, July 3, July 17, July 31, August 14 and August 28. So keep these dates in mind, brothers, and avoid disappointment by coming to lodge on a night on which we will not be meeting.

On July 10 we will be welcoming our own Brother, George Manson, D.D.G.M. who will be installing our officers for the ensuing term. A cordial invitation is extended to all members of the Order to be with us that evening. Please keep this date open and plan to be with us, for this will be the only mid-summer installation in the city, and we would like to see a good crowd in attendance. There will be refreshments.

During the next term our lodge will be under the guidance of Bro. Alex D. Trussler, our present Vice Grand, and what better hands could a lodge be in. Best wishes for a pleasant and successful term, Brother Trussler.—G. S. McA.

IT'S YOUR PAPER TOO!

If your lodge does not have an ad on the Lodge Directory page, make a motion at the next meeting to place an ad in your fraternal paper.

Two Coal Branch Lodges Are Merged

On Friday night, June 1, Big Horn Lodge No. 138 at Mountain Park held one of the brightest meetings experienced in years. The occasion was a visit from Deputy Grand Master Alfred C. Woodard, of Edmonton, and a good number from Luscar Lodge No. 148.

During the meeting, the deputy, acting under instructions from Grand Master Charles Fox, completed the amalgamation of the two lodges under the name and number of Big Horn Lodge No. 138, and thereby left only one lodge on the Alberta Coal Branch.

History is repeating itself and the first formed are the last to remain. A few years ago Cadomin Brothers formed a lodge and later Luscar formed another lodge. But times have changed and the brothers now find themselves back into the mother lodge. All are happy to be back in the home where they started, most of them over 20 years ago.

Brother Woodard, assisted by Past D.D.G.M. E. Pettigraw of Edson Lodge No. 92, and D.D.G.M. T. Roone, did the honors of amalgamation. After short addresses by Bros. Roone and Pettigraw, Bro. Woodard spoke on the work of the Order and what will be expected of us when our boys come home again. Bro. Woodard's address was enjoyed by all.

The wives of the officers of Big Horn Lodge then served a grand lunch.

Hanna Lodge Host to the Deputy G.M.

Hanna Lodge No. 99 was the place where happy hearts met when on June 5 they were hosts to the Deputy Grand Master, Bro. Alfred C. Woodard, and D.D. Grand Master Thomas Terrant, of Drumheller.

There were to have been three First degrees on that night but the "call of green pastures" was too much so some one had to go to the "round up" and we had no candidates turn up. That will all be fixed up at Drumheller on June 25 when Bro. Woodard makes his visit.

Assisted by D.D.G.M. Terrant, Bro. Woodard installed Bro. A. N. McRea as District Deputy Grand Master, District No. 15, for the coming year. This lodge is in fair shape as we have three candidates on the way and more in the making. We are very grateful to Drumheller No. 111 for all they have done to help us along and only hope that in the near future we will be able not only to look after our own degree work but to help No. 111.

Bro. Woodard's address on the work of the Order and our place in the coming fight to help our boys coming back to get in tune again will not soon be forgotten. The question period which followed the address on the social work that is to follow showed the membership listened attentively to the advice given.

Again the hand that rules the world was seen in the work that must have been done to get ready the beautiful lunch that followed the meeting. Thanks, Sisters Rebekah!

Noble Grand Busy Crossfield Lodge

Our Grand Master's home lodge has taken on new life. Noble Grand, Brother C. E. Becker has been very busy seeking more good members for our order. On May 21, the Third Degree was conferred on five members from Crossfield Lodge in a very colorful manner and as a result No. 42 has some new members to work with and carry on the good work. It is reported that the Noble Grand is working on another class for fall term and I am sure that he will be just as busy in the next six months as he has been in the past.

Our anniversary service was well attended, considering the condition of weather and roads. Some of the members are kept busy accompanying the Grand Master on some of his official visits. A number of the brothers visited Sunnyslope Lodge last week and witnessed the initiatory degree. They reported a good time.—W. H.

Elective Officers Confirmed in Posts

Local current events from Alberta Lodge No. 1, I.O.O.F., Calgary, would hardly be complete without some mention of the weather in this section of the short grass country. To say the least it is somewhat unusual and according to some, the least said about it the better. It can be inferred from the foregoing that it has rained, is still raining and has all the appearances of not being sorry for anything it has done so far.

However, it is not without its human interest story. A pair of robins, recently returned from the west coast and presumably well used to wet weather, have taken up residence on a beam between the joists of a house under construction near the home of the writer. Under the shelter of the sub-floor and apparently undisturbed by the carpenters setting up the studding, the mother robin is hatching out her brood. Seemingly well aware of the shortage of building material, the pair display every confidence that the young ones will be able to fly out the basement windows before the cellar sash arrive. This situation will be carefully watched, and should there be any hint of tragedy, this correspondent may find nothing better to do than to keep the readers informed.

The brilliant correspondent, Red Stewart, who has taken upon himself the chore of reporting the doings of the Samaritans, has asserted that the new editor has called the bluff of the correspondent from No. 1. Nothing could be further from the truth. Having been informed by his lodge that his membership has passed the one score years and five, said writer, on his own account, decided to act his age. Another old duffer, writing under the name of Hillhurst No. 46, Fred Hodges, was so busy accepting congratulations on the occasion of receiving his Veteran Jewel that he did not have time to pen last month's epistle. To those he has already received, this writer should like to add his personal wishes that Fred keep up the good work.

There was little excitement at the May elections when the three elective officers of this lodge were confirmed in their positions by acclamation. The Noble Grand chosen to preside over the destinies of No. 1 for the next term is Bro. Angus McLeod, while Bro. Herb McKay will hold down the position at the east end of the hall. To round out the "Mc's" Bro. C. W. McGaw was re-elected recording secretary. It is also quite possible that you may read the names of MacDonald, McKinnon and McGhie on the list of appointed officers when installation is over.

Candidates receiving the Second Degree from this lodge on May 11 were: Crossfield No. 42, Bros. H. Ballam, H. Wygle, B. Lilly, W. Lilly and W. G. Landymore; Hillhurst No. 46, Bros. F. Chinder and F. Chivers; Bow Valley No. 89, Cochrane, Bros. B. McNeight, J. Houghton, J. Copithorne and G. Bowhay. Grand Master Charles Fox, Crossfield, accompanied the members of No. 42 and addressed the lodge at the conclusion of the degree.

The big Encampment degree rally at Lethbridge on May 24, will, no doubt, be reported at some length by that branch of the Order. If a personal observation will be permitted, it was a busy and enjoyable day. True southern hospitality would appear to be the motto of the Lethbridge Encampment.

While the majority of the visitors were able to return home that night, it was thought best to let the candidates from No. 1 who braved the wilderness in the Royal Purple Degree have a night's rest before subjecting them to further travel. Rather than have them stay alone in a strange city, a few others consented to keep them company. The housing arrangements were suitably made by Bro. Albert Dupen, Chief Patriarch and also boss at the Alexandra Hotel.

Holiday time is around the corner with officers and members breaking off for well earned rests. The writer is planning to be out of town the first couple of weeks in July. With the tire situation as it is, with luck, he may get as far as Banff. Should that be the case, the next report from Alberta Lodge No. 1 may bear a Banff date line.—C. W. Mc.

Samaritans Plan Picnic at Banff

Well, another month has rolled around and ye old reporter of the Fez wearing gents will do his best to report on the happenings, etc., of the past month. Our last meeting was a little quiet as the boys from the country were busy seeding and couldn't get in. A lot of the locals failed to show up, which probably was due to gardening, etc.

The Samaritans Sharara Sanctorum No. 272, Calgary, have been doing quite a lot of traveling lately. A car load of them went to High River in May to arrange for the big picnic which is to be held in Banff this summer (if we ever get any). The boys in the south are quite enthusiastic and I think it will go over with a bang. So make your reservations early, Samaritans, otherwise you may have to sleep out under the stars.

A car load of Samaritans, accompanied the Grand Warden Bro. W. C. Gordon on his official visit to Banff Lodge No. 48 on Monday, June 4. After talking it over with the Banff Brothers it was decided that July 21 was the most suitable date for the picnic. Our registrar is writing to the boys down south to see if that date is all right with them.

I think our registrar or the recording secretary of No. 46 is getting a little off the beam, or maybe it was our ex-registrar, Sam Harvey. Anyway, at our last meeting a communication was read out from Hillhurst lodge No. 46 to attend an initiation in that lodge on Dec. 7. Will one of these brothers please explain.

A bunch of the Samaritans planned on going to Vulcan on Thursday, June 14, as Sam Gordon, Grand Warden, was to make his official visit on that date.

I was a little misquoted on my last write-up as it is the Samaritans and not Hillhurst that is putting on the picnic at Banff. This picnic is open to all the Samaritans, Zuannas, Odd Fellows, Rebekahs and their friends, so let's all go and make it a grand success.—D. S.

Editor's Note:—Beg pardon for that headline slip. Now you know editors are human after all.

Hillhurst Lodge Elects Officers

Since the last issue of the fraternal press I have had many enquiries as to why there was no write-up from this lodge, Hillhurst No. 46, I.O.O.F., Calgary. Well, boys, I sent one in but it may have been too late for the last issue, but I think I sent it in time. And then again it may have got mislaid or lost in the mail, but the post office department is pretty efficient, or should be. I work for them. However, whatever the reason, I kept a copy and no doubt you will read it in this issue.

Our gang is still on the active list in regard to candidates. Three more have received their initiation, and one more application on the table, and the possibilities of some more. Thursday, May 7, Sandstone No. 17 came over and conferred the first degree. It was a real old fashioned lodge meeting with some sixty-five members present. St. George Lodge, too, came over in goodly numbers. This visit was one which D.D.G.M. Palfrey hopes will be the fore-runner of many such visitations. It will be if things work out as he has them planned.

Thursday, June 14, will be a big night at Vulcan. A large class of candidates will receive the second degree, and some 20 members will receive their Veteran's Jewels. It would be a great thing if Vulcan and all the lodges meeting with them on the 14th could make arrangements to bring the candidates to Calgary for the third degree. I would like to see a write-up from them covering this meeting. How about it, 91? Let's hear from you.

The election of officers took place at our last meeting. Bro. H. G. McDan-nold was elected N.G. Now we will get cream in our coffee, we hope. Bro. Harry Strange will be V.G. He should make a capable officer. Yours truly was once again elected recording secretary. Don't know why, as there is no shortage of good material. For May 24 the social committee laid plans for a picnic at Paradise Grove, but owing to the weather man not co-operating, we had to adjourn to the lodge room where a good time was had by all.—F. W. H.

Editor's Note:—May report from Hillhurst lodge appears in this issue. It was impossible to handle it in time last month, because of the time required to make the engraving to accompany the news report.

Joint Service to Mark Anniversary

The Odd Fellows and Rebekahs of Medicine Hat and district held their anniversary services on May 20, going to Westminster church and led by the famous Boys' and Girls' Band, which certainly did justice to the parade. There were about 50 Odd Fellows and about the same number of Rebekahs in attendance at the evening service to listen to an able and inspiring address by Rev. Prof. E. J. Thompson, of Edmonton, who was attending the anniversary services of the Westminster church. The subject for the sermon was "Fear Not, I Am With Thee Always."

In the parade were several good old time Veterans from out of town in the persons of Bro. Walter V. Sanders, of Jubilee Lodge, Detroit, U.S., Bro. W. R. McFall of Etzikom, Br. John Den-nison of Winnifred Lodge, and about 30 veterans of Medicine Hat lodge.

The lodge has been quite busy putting on degree work as we have several candidates, and some by transfer. We are looking forward to the regular meeting, May 28, as we expect to have an invasion from the lodge at Maple Creek to confr the Third Degree on a class of candidates. I understand that this Maple Creek lodge can put on the degree in fine style.

The write accompanied Bros. Louie, Leveque, Strling Schroder, J. R. Mc-Arady and Ike Bullivant to Lethbridge for the big Camp doings on May 24, and we certainly had a good time and were pleased to meet a lot of Patri-archs from the west and north. The degree work was well put on, and some 14 candidates took all three degrees.

While in Lethbridge, a report was going around about a good Patriarch from Calgary, I believe, and ran some-think like this:

The good brother was planting his garden and put in a lot of cabbage and Cauliflower plants. When finished, he stood back and looked with pride at what he had accomplished, thinking that in the near future he would be liv-ing on the products of his labors. Re-tiring at night, he soothed himself to sleep with the thoughts. In the morn-ing he arose and went to see how his crop was growing, when, to his dismay, he saw that nearly all the plants had been taken by cut-worms. He scratched his head and uttered a few words as to what he would do if only he could catch the dirty little worms. Then a bright idea came into his head. He would plant some more that night again, and would build small tin cas-ings around them to keep out the pesky cut-worms. He labored long and when finished, said, "Now, I feel that I can rest without worry, as they will be safe from the cutworms in the morning." The morning came and he went out to see how his efforts prevailed, and, so he said, after looking at the plants . . . "Those darn cut-worms had armed themselves with bulldozers and were about to attack his crop again." I don't know how true this is, and am sorry that I didn't get the good bro-ther's name, except that he made the remark, "Well, I hope that the cut-worms won't spoil the corn crop in Medicine Hat."—S. C.

Ponoka Lodge on Visit to Lacombe

About 30 members from Ponoka Lodge No. 11 journeyed to Lacombe on May 21 to confer the third degree on six members of Ponoka Lodge. After lodge a very fine lunch was served by the Lacombe brothers. Brother Wil-iamson, Noble Grand of Magnet Lodge spoke a few words in thanking the Ponoka degree team for the excellent manner in which they conferred the degree. Brother Koleyak, Noble Grand of Ponoka Lodge, also spoke a few words.

On May 28 Ponoka Lodge No. 11 initiated two more members to bring their lodge up to the 100 member class. This makes their eighth candidate of the present term and our brothers do not intend to stop at that.

On Sunday, June 10, about 60 mem-bers of Hope Rebekah Lodge No. 33 and Ponoka Lodge No. 11 marched from the lodge rooms to Ponoka Bap-tist church to attend the anniversary service commemorating the 126th birth-day of the founding of the Order. The Rev. Antrobus gave an inspirational address on Friendship, Love and Truth. After the service the members marched back to the lodge rooms to partake of refreshments. The writer regrets that none of the outside members invited were able to attend.—M. D. K.

We want your Lodge news!

Encampment and Patriarchs Militant

GRAND PATRIARCH'S MESSAGE FOR ENCAMPMENT BRANCH

Fellow members, the Rally at Lethbridge has come and gone. Results—fourteen initiates become full members, and one reinstatement. Also, the Southern Encampments have as many more who for various reasons were unable to attend. To the Patriarchs who journeyed from Calgary, from Vulcan, Lomond, High River and Medicine Hat in answer to the request in our fraternal paper or by personal letter I offer my sincere and grateful thanks. We may well profit by the lesson of Odd Fellowship some of our visitors taught us.

A trip of 250 miles to attend a meeting is real Odd Fellowship, that of service and sacrifice. Just a word for the summer months, we have added to our membership and we cannot expect big things for at least the next two months, but we can at least prepare for our fall work with the object in view of not only adding to our new members but to interest and hold these new members already taken in. To secure new blood, to give them their degrees is but half the battle. Let each and every member study ways and means to keep these new members interested and above all, working.

—W. E. BLAIR, Grand Patriarch.

Lethbridge Rally Is Well Attended

The Encampment branch of the Odd Fellows made very substantial gains in their membership over the May 24 holiday in Lethbridge. Lethbridge Encampment No. 7 acted as hosts to a gathering of 80 members from all parts of Southern Alberta south of Calgary.

The entire afternoon and part of the evening was taken up by conferring all three degrees. The first was put on by a team from Timleck Encampment No. 16 located at High River and captained by P.G.P. Howard Nixon of Nanton. The second was put on by Lethbridge Encampment No. 7, with P.G.P. Bruce Morden in charge, and the third by the visiting members from Alberta Encampment No. 1 at Calgary under the leadership of "Doc" Chappelle.

The local C.P., A. E. Dupen, presided and also acted as M.C. for the informal dance after 9 o'clock.

The sitting officers of the Grand Encampment who were present and introduced were: Grand Patriarch W. E. Blair, Lethbridge; Grand High Priest Archie Sheffield, Calgary; Grand Marshal Ed. Root, Lomond; Grand Outside Sentinel M. Brockway, High River; and the following D.D.G.P.'s, Louie Laveque of Medicine Hat, M. D. Stitt of Lethbridge, O. E. Smith of High River.

The degrees were conferred on 15 candidates from several parts of the south.

Other grand officers of the order were: Major W. McGaw, Lieut. G. D. Hamilton and Ensign J. Unsworth of Calgary Canton No. 2. The delegation from High River was headed by P.G.P. W. B. Cope, who is Sovereign Grand Lodge Representative this year. From Medicine Hat, P.G.P. Sing Cope and ex-Mayor Bro. Bullivant; and from Walsh P.G.M. Bro. Schroeder; also P.G.M. Everett McPherson, of Vulcan. P.G.P. H. Lowe of Lethbridge was also present.

A committee of Rebekahs headed by Sister Helen McNabb provided supper at 5:15 and their efforts were greatly appreciated. A small informal dance was held after 9 p.m. for those members who were able to stay.

Canton to Suspend Summer Meetings

It is expected that Patriarchs Militant Canton, Calgary No. 2, will agree at the June Meeting to holiday until September. This is the usual procedure and the members show up in the fall full of renewed vigor.

The Canton had the pleasure of welcoming back Capt. Van Buren who spent considerable time as returning officer for the provincial military elections and followed this up with a trip to the west coast. Van's one outstanding characteristic reposes in his left hand coat pocket in the form of a big bag of candy, which he proceeds to give away without regard to the sugar shortage. Where the candy comes from or how much this generosity costs is Van's business. The store at his Sunshine Auto Camp may provide the answer. (A box of cigars was his contribution to the Camp's Lethbridge trip.)

The Canton buttons were very much in evidence at the Encampment "do" in Lethbridge. Unofficially it provided a good opportunity for the Chevilleir from Medicine Hat, High River, Lethbridge, Calgary and intermediate points to get together. When the situation becomes a bit easier and more of the members can procure equipment it may be possible for the military branch to go visiting in uniform.

The Canton was saddened by the passing of Past Captain J. L. Richards in his 81st year. In the years gone by, Lee was very active in his Canton and only failing health kept him at home on the third Wednesday in the month. To Mrs. Richards and the bereaved relatives, the sincerest sympathy is extended.

This should be enough from the Junior Canton. The Senior Canton is, of course, Edmonton No. 1 and quite an active organization despite its modest demands on the printer's ink.

—C.W.Me.

Encampment No. 1 Gets New Members

Alberta Encampment No. 1 is really "going to town" taking in new members and making reinstatements. We have had about seven in the last month or so. The Encampment Branch is really picking up and I think that it will continue.

The big highlight of the month was the gathering at Lethbridge. We had three or four candidates take the three degrees. I'll leave the details to the Lethbridge boys, but Alberta Encampment No. 1 wants to thank the boys in the south for the wonderful time which was shown to us all and which will not soon be forgotten.

Going down to Lethbridge Pat. Van Buren evidently wanting to see more of the country than could be seen from the highway got his car load off on the wrong road and ended up in a farmer's yard.—D. S.

REBEKAH ACTIVITIES

MAKE EVERY REBEKAH LODGE KNOWN FOR ITS FRIENDSHIP

By MRS. M. GILKES
President, Rebekah Assembly of Alberta

I wonder if we Rebekahs realize the great work we have to do, or do we shirk our responsibilities?

Our Order teaches us that we should always remember to lighten the paths of others in this world of sadness and grief.

We see sadness and grief on every side, so many of our sisters have suffered the loss of dear ones through the war, and we cannot idly sit by and let them suffer alone. We have an opportunity at hand to put into practice our wonderful teachings. Always remember, dear sisters, that by putting the feelings of others to the fore, we would indeed make life much more real for ourselves, and get much more enjoyment out of this world, by being a true and faithful friend.

A real friend at no time would intentionally hurt another sister. So let us try to understand one another. Above all, practice true friendship in our lodge room.

Take time to speak to visiting sisters and make them feel real welcome. We would soon realize that a friendly lodge atmosphere will make your lodge a known lodge. They will want to come back, and I am sure that you would have no trouble at all getting the members out to lodge if we make them realize that they are needed, and missed when they are away.

Let us make each and every lodge known for their friendship.

committee arranged a social evening of games and community singing with Sister Dorothy Reesor at the piano. The committee also acted as hostess for a lovely lunch of home-made buns and cake. At this meeting, a motion was made to purchase a $100 bond.

At the regular meeting on May 14, the Rebekah degree was conferred on three new members, Mrs. Margaret Castle, Mrs. Ruth Hanegan and Miss Betty Krellar. Lunch was served by the social committee. At the regular meeting on May 28, plans were discussed for a hike to be held on our first meeting in June, and all members were invited to a luncheon and bridge. That Sewing Circle No. 1 arranged for June 13 at the home of Sister Emily Slater. After the meeting the hostesses for the evening arranged tables of Court Whist, with Sister Mabel Conner winning the prize for high score. A lovely lunch was then served down stairs.

Our lodge sends each member a notice about every meeting, which advises them what is to take place at the meeting, and also what dues are owed by the member. We feel the notices have created more interest, and the reminder about the dues has helped, too. We were on the A.R.A. Honor Roll last year, and we hope to do the same this year.

Review Activities of Wildey Rebekahs

The activities of Wildey Rebekah Lodge No. 107, Medicine Hat, have not been sent in since the first of the year. We will start from January, 1945, and in future will try to keep up-to-date.

One Tuesday, January 9, we held our joint installation at the regular meeting of Ruth Rebekah Lodge No. 5. Sister Jean Lefever was installed as Noble Grand for 1945. Our next meeting in January was followed by a successful degree practise, and lunch was served.

At our regular meeting on February 12, Sewing Circle No. 1 made a donation of $60.75 to the special fund, and the officers and members wore their new regalia and collars which were also donated by Sewing Circle No. 1. Degree practise was held after lodge and lunch was served.

On February 26, the beautiful Rebekah degree was conferred on three new members, Mrs. Stella Stephen, Mrs. Rhoda Bain, and Mrs. Louise McLeod. Lunch was served following the meeting.

On March 12, the beautiful degree was conferred on two more new members, Mrs. Pearl Sammon and Miss Dena Coebergh. Lunch was served after lodge.

At our regular meeting on March 26 Sister Fairhurst, retiring D.D.P., installed Sister Helen Orr, our new District Deputy President of District No. 18. Sister Helen Orr, D.D.P., then read her commission. Sister Helen Spencer, our representative to Grand Lodge, read her excellent report on the proceedings of the Rebekah Assembly held in March. Lunch was served following lodge.

On April 9, plans were completed for our tea and sale of home cooking and fancy work which was held in the hall on April 21. Both Sewing Circle No. 1 and Sewing Circle No. 2 helped to make the tea a success and the sum of $132.85 was realized.

Before our regular meeting on April 23, we held our annual banquet in the Cosmopolitan hotel, to celebrate the 15th birthday of Wildey Rebekah Lodge. Sister Jean Lefever, Noble Grand, spoke a few words and the banquet was enjoyed by about fifty members. After the regular meeting, the

Veterans' Jewels For Three Members

On Thursday evening, May 3, Colfax Rebekah Lodge No. 51 opened at 8:30 with the Noble Grand Sister L. Davies presiding. Sister Muriel Dunfield introduced our District Deputy President, Sister Alice Nash. After reading her charge Sister Nash performed a very interesting ceremony. A presentation of Veterans' Jewels was made to three of our members from Delia, Sister Carrie Hubbard, Sister Muriel Dunfield and Sister Irene Fitzsimmons. Although Sister Fitzsimmons was unable to be present the fitting remarks made by Sister Nash, D.D.P., included all three.

Sister Nash said she felt it was a great honor to be able to present three Veterans' Jewels in one evening and congratulated each recipient for her untiring work and faithfulness to the Rebekah Lodge for so many years. Sister Nash later read a letter of Disposition allowing Colfax Rebekah Lodge to make a donation to the Hanna Swimming Pool Fund, which is now well under way. The citizens of Hanna hope through this fund to be able to build an up-to-date pool.

Owing to the departure and resignation of our former treasurer, Sister Ellen Christenson was installed into this office, with Sister Muriel Dunfield acting as Marshal. Another Veteran's Jewel has been ordered and at a later meeting this will be presented to Sister B. Laughlin, who has been a member for twenty-eight years. The members decided to have a special social evening when this jewel is presented.

With the regular business finished the lodge closed in prescribed form.

Colfax Rebekah Lodge No. 51 held a special meeting on the evening of May 22. Noble Grand Sister L. Davies presided, and after the secretary read the minutes of the last meeting, Sister A. Thatcher introduced Sister L. Goodman, Vice-president of the Rebekah Assembly of Alberta, and also Sister A. Nash, District Deputy President.

All the members participated in welcoming the guests. Following this the initiating ceremony was demonstrated by the degree team.

Sister Goodman then thanked the members for their welcome and also for the splendid effort made on her behalf. She also gave several helpful suggestions.

As this was a special meeting no other business was transacted and the lodge closed in prescribed form.

A delicious lunch was then served and a social time enjoyed during which a beautiful cup and saucer was presented to Sister Goodman as a gift from the lodge.—Mrs. D. A. Stock.

President Is Guest Lougheed Rebekahs

On May 8, Lougheed Rebekah Lodge No. 55 enjoyed the presence of Sister Minnie Gilkes, President of the Rebekah Assembly, paying us her official visit to our lodge. We also enjoyed her compliments of the way our work was carried on. Her speech was greatly enjoyed by all.

By request of the President the degree work was exemplified. In the afternoon, Sister Crozier entertained the sisters who were able to be present for a social hour and a dainty lunch was served. A splendid lunch was also prepared by the committee for the evening and was enjoyed, especially the salads. Yum! Yum! Sister Marlow, N.G., presented the President with a small token from the lodge.

The evening was marred by the news of Sister C. Lawrence being bereaved by the death of her sister that afternoon. Our sympathy to Sister Lawrence and family.—C. W.

Princess Rebekahs Farewell Member

Princess Rebekah Lodge No. 82 held their regular meeting on May 10 at 8 p.m. Sister Cundall, D.D.P., was present to read her commission. Bro. McMasters, D.D.G.M., Sisters McMasters, Kechnie and Carmichael accompanied the D.D.P.

At the close of the meeting all present joined in a social hour in honor of Vice Grand, Sister Dixon, who is leaving us soon. The social committee served a tasty lunch, after which Sister Gordon, N.G., in a few well chosen words, presented Sister Dixon with a cup and saucer. All joined hands and sang "For She's a Jolly Good Fellow". We are sorry to lose Sister Dixon, but wish her all the best in her new home.—Elizabeth Cranston, Rec. Sec.

Esther Rebekahs Give Three Degrees

At a recent meeting Esther Rebekah Lodge No. 1 conferred the Rebekah degree on two sisters and one brother. During the evening the brother, W. F. McGaw gave a brief talk.

More than 100 guests attended the Victory tea held in the L.O.O.F. Temple recently. In the absence of Mrs. H. G. Gilkes, President of the Rebekah Assembly, Mrs. M. S. Saunders, P.P., assisted by the Noble Grand, Mrs. Fred S. Dixon, received the guests, each wearing corsages of red, white and blue flowers.

The tea table was very attractive being decorated with the flags of the United Nations, also the flags of the navy, army and air force. During the afternoon the following were invited to preside at the tea urns: Mrs. G. J. Scott, Mrs. Thomas Mullen, Mrs. Annie Bannister, Mrs. N. J. Duckworth, Mrs. R. B. Molyneux, Mrs. Frank Pickard, Mrs. Fred Brigdon, Mrs. Geo. French, Mrs. W. A. Webb, Mrs. Jean Lamb, D.D.P., Miss M. D. Edlund, Mrs. H. H. Day, Mrs. W. F. Rogers, Mrs. W. T. Dawson, Mrs. Milton Davies, Vancouver, B.C., Mrs. Charles Fox, Crossfield, and Mrs. Wm. MacGregor. Assisting Mrs. Emily Godfrey, social convener, were Mrs. Annie Cochran, Mrs. H. A. Tait, Mrs. A. W. Sheffield, Miss Marguerite McLean, Mrs. Edgar Elliott,

Mrs. J. D. Balmer, Mrs. Harvey Horwell, Mrs. H. M. Redfern, Mrs. Maggie Mellado and Miss Eleanor Will. Mrs. Mabel Brown looked after home cooking. The silk hose raffled off by Miss Annie Tait were drawn for by little Miss Beverley Anne Shipley, and the winner was Miss Mary Crane. The door prize, donated by the Noble Grand, was won by Miss Marguerite McLean with ticket No. 63. Mrs. W. H. Pearson was treasurer during the afternoon.

The Noble Grand wishes for each and every member a happy, restful holiday.

To our sick and shut-ins
I cannot find a truer word,
Or fonder to caress you;
Nor have I read in song or poem,
Sweeter than "God bless you."

Several members of Naomi Rebekah Lodge No. 12 attended our meeting on May 14 and were given a hearty welcome by the Noble Grand.

Silver Leaf Lodge Welcomes President

Once again Silver Leaf Rebekah Lodge No. 40, Killam, greets its friends. We pass another milestone in our onward journey to the goal the Master has set for the pilgrims of our Order. We were happy to greet and shake the hand of our President in Friendship, Love and Truth, and those of other members whom we have known for years past.

A car load of Lougheed sisters met with us that evening.

A real old lady said to me once at her golden wedding: "Be kind to the old, for they have come a long way; Be good to the young, for they have a long way to go." That's it.

We are glad to welcome the new ones and happy to meet once again those of long acquaintance.

Let me say the occasion I wish to record is that of May 7, when we spent a very pleasant evening with our President, Sister M. Gilkes, of Calgary, also Sister McLean of Provost, Past D.D.P.

With Sister B. Galletly in the chair the honors were given to these two ladies. Sister Eva Roberts, Past D.D.P. assisted Sister McLean with the installation ceremony of Sister Annie Bonar as District Deputy President for 1945-46. A pleasant and profitable evening was spent over the business we transacted as well as the social hour over the tea cups when the Noble Grand presented a fancy dish to sister Gilkes.

We hope perhaps later in June to hold anniversary services.

—Mrs. Nellie B. York.

Keep the News Coming

The response to the appeal for news of the lodges has been highly encouraging. It is noted that many of the lodges have their press representatives busy, which is a good sign. Let us hope that their efforts will be maintained, and that they will find the work pleasant and productive of much good.

Members will observe in this issue a picture of the anniversary gathering of Hillhurst Lodge No. 46 I.O.O.F., Calgary. Publication of this picture probably will suggest to others that certain occasions will be well worth recording pictorially. It is a matter of great interest to many to see pictures of special events. Send such pictures to the Alberta Odd Fellow for possible publication. If they are suitable, we shall be glad to use them.

Now that the holiday season is upon us, there is a possibility that some lodge activities will ease up and there will not be as much to report as formerly. That makes it all the more necessary for those that have activities to report to send in such material. It will be needed particularly in this summer period. Remember, we are depending on you to furnish these reports as that is the only way we can get them recorded in the columns of this publication.

As we have said before, this is your publication. We hope that you will not falter in making it a grand success and something of which your lodges will be proud.

We want your Lodge news!

Thanks Manitoba

Many complimentary comments have come from Alberta lodges on the present make-up, presentation and generally improved Alberta Odd Fellow. The editor naturally has been gratified, encouraged and imbued with a greater desire to even do better. As has been said before, after all it is up to the lodges to send in the news.

Now an outsider, that is, one outside of Alberta, has added to the general collection of bouquets for the editor. The Western Canada Odd Fellow, published at Winnipeg and official organ of the Grand Lodge of Manitoba, Grand Encampment of Manitoba, Rebekah Assembly of Manitoba, with Bro. A. L. Simpson as editor and proprietor, has this to say:

"The current issue of the Alberta Odd Fellow reached our desk recently and we wish to extend our congratulations to the new editor and publisher, Bro. R. A. Godson, of Edmonton, on its appearance and contents. It is one of the best publications of the 24 we receive monthly. Here's hoping, Bro. Godson, that you get all the support in your efforts your excellent publication deserves."

Church Parade on Lodge Anniversary

The I.O.O.F. Lodges, Odd Fellows and Rebekahs, celebrated the 126th

Anniversary of the founding of the Order by a church parade to the United Church at Claresholm. The parade assembled at the I.O.O.F. Hall under the direction of W. E. Atkinson and walked to the church. There was a sufficient number to fill the centre of the church. The service was conducted by Rev. W. J. Collett and he was assisted by S/L R. Binning, Padre at No. 15 S.F.T.S. In his sermon Mr. Collett referred to the ideals of the order for the building of human understanding and Universal Brotherhood. The senior choir sang the anthem, "Spirit Divine" and a quartet composed of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Hill, Mrs. W. J. Harper and Mr. R. E. Soby sang, "Guard While I Sleep."

Following the service the Odd Fellows, the Rebekahs and their friends gathered in the I.O.O.F. Hall for lunch. After lunch the Noble Grand of the Odd Fellows, Neil Stewart, called upon S/L Rowan Binning to speak to the gathering. Rev. Binning is the minister of the United Church at Wetaskiwin and has been on leave of absence for four years while serving as Chaplain in the R.C.A.F. He hopes to get his discharge soon and resume his pastorate in July. Three of his years in the R.C.A.F. have been spent overseas where he was attached to some of the famous bomber squadrons, one of which was the "Goose Squadron." He held his audience in wrapt attention for nearly half an hour while he described the incidents of his work. He said that the chaplains had a chance to get to know the boys and to know the work they were doing and what they were thinking. The padres were allowed to sit in the Briefing Room while the target for the night was explained. They were the last to leave the planes before they took off and the first to meet the planes when they returned. He said that he always kept his pockets full of chewing gum, chocolate bars and cigarettes so that he could supply the needs of the men. The little intimate details in the life on the station and the insistence of the boys of little habits were interesting. He said he knew of one crew that would never take off without sticking a piece of freshly chewed gum on the nose of the aircraft. S/L Binning said that the reason he told these things was to stress two points—first that the lads were made of good stuff and never failed despite the arduous tasks, and second that they have gone through all manner of experiences and will require understanding when they get home.

Mrs. Daisy Price, the Noble Grand, thanked Mr. Binning for his address, and C. A. Coutts did likewise for the Odd Fellows. The meeting closed with the singing of God Save the King.

Anoka Rebekahs' Annual Spring Tea

Our prayers of thanksgiving go out on the cessation of hostilities in Europe. We rejoice with those whose loved ones will be coming home, and our deepest sympathies go to those whose loved ones have made the supreme sacrifice. To all we owe so much.

May our rejoicing soon be complete, with the ending of hostilities in the Pacific.

Each and every one had their own way of celebrating V E-Day. On that day Anoka Rebekah Lodge No. 21, Calgary, held their annual spring tea and sale of work and home cooking. Sister M. Pickard, N.G. and Sister F. French, V.G., received the guests and welcomed them. A delicious tea was served and all enjoyed the afternoon. Sister I. Burrell was convener.

On May 18 we took another wanderer into our fold. We wish her luck and sincerely hope she enjoys our wonderful order.

Our war committee is still going strong and meeting weekly at the different sisters' homes.—Sis. M. Clarke.

Pays Official Visit to Faith Rebekahs

At the regular meeting of Faith Rebekah Lodge No. 93 held in Burgman hall, Lethbridge, on Wednesday, May 2, Sister E. Padgett, warden of the Rebekah Assembly of Alberta, paid her official visit to the lodge.

Sister Unsworth, P.N.G., and Sister Allison, P.N.G., introduced Sister Padgett, Sister Watson, Sister Stafford, all Assembly officers, and Bro. H. Lowe, past Grand Patriarch of the Grand Encampment of Alberta. Noble Grand Sister R. Barlett welcomed these visitors on behalf of the lodge.

An encouraging talk was given by Sister Padgett, which everyone present enjoyed. Sister Unsworth on behalf of the lodge presented Sister Padgett with a gift for which the latter thanked the members.

At the close of the meeting the members and visitors enjoyed lunch served by the social committee, bringing the evening to a close.

It is with regret that we report the passing of Sister Mary Elenora Ingoldsby who passed away on Thursday, May 31st, after an operation.

Sister Ingoldsby was a Past Noble Grand of Faith Rebekah Lodge, and a very active member. The sympathies of all members of Faith goes out to the family.

The lodge held a successful sale of work recently. The sewing table was in charge of Mrs. A. Allison. Mrs. F. Stafford and Miss J. Hurst. The home cooking table was looked after by Mrs. Morris and Mrs. Logan. The "white elephant" table was in charge of Mrs. V. Rhodes.

The tea room was taken care of by Mrs. W. Worthington and Mrs. A. Field. Assisting in serving were Mrs. N. Goldie and Mrs. M. Snowden.

A sale of tickets on pillow cases, ear rings and bracelet were in charge of Mrs. N. Sayers. Treasurer for the tea room was Mrs. R. Bartlett. Following the draws, the pillow cases were won by Mrs. J. Moran with ticket No. 7806, earrings and bracelet by Mrs. E. Lowe.

Plan Showers for Alix War Brides

At the May meetings Sincerity Rebekah Lodge No. 38, Alix, received and accepted four applications for candidates for initiation. Plans were laid for sponsoring showers for the war brides who will come to Alix.

At the meeting on May 28 we were honored by a visit from our President of the Assembly. Also 21 sisters and brothers from the Lakeview Lodge No. 110, Mirror, were visitors.

At this meeting the seven sister degree staff conferred the degree on three candidates and were highly complimented by the president.

The president made a presentation to a past noble grand Sister Oldring who has just come home with a new baby girl.

The president gave a very fine address after which all sat down to a delightful lunch. At this time Sister Loepfer, P.N.G., and only charter member sister left in our lodge, presented the president with a gift.

Veteran Members Are Dinner Guests

Meetings of Harmony Rebekah Lodge No. 11, I.O.O.F., High River, are well attended, thanks to our young members. The social committee and finance committee have been busy again with good results. After our May 10 meeting the Rebekahs of Harmony Lodge gave a surprise party and social evening in honor of Bro. Bill Irving on the occasion of his 75th birthday. Bill is one of our beloved members and I may say so is Sister Irving, always willing to help in lodge work. Bill joined the I.O.O.F. lodge in Michigan 45 years ago and has been associate member of I.O.O.F. No. 22 and member of Rebekah No. 11 for the past 21 years—a faithful fraternity brother and good citizen of High River. He came here in 1910 and his livery barn was a popular centre in the early days.

A lovely dinner was served by young Rebekahs for the occasion. But Bro. Irving did not realize that the party was for him until a dining-room 'black-out' was followed by the appearance of a huge birthday cake with 75 lighted candles which was placed before the honored guest. A gift with accompanying good wishes signed by all members of the lodge also signalized the occasion. Bill is quite a boy in spite of his years and thoroughly enjoyed the surprise. Sister Cousins also received a gift from Rebekah lodge members which was much appreciated.

Another dinner guest also an I.O.O.F. member of No. 22, was Bro. Woods, who celebrated his 80th birthday May 10 and is still enjoying good health. Sister Ford was winner of Bingo. The party concluded with the singing of "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow," and many thanks to our young Rebekahs for a most enjoyable evening.

On May 24 a very successful dance was held in the town hall with a large attendance and good music. The proceeds after all expenses were paid, realized the sum of $120 which will go into social services fund.—E. C.

District Lodge in Session at Millet

The district meeting of District No. 9B, I.O.O.F., comprising Ponoka, Wetaskiwin and Millet lodges, was held at Millet in the lodge hall on the regular meeting night of Sunbeam Rebekah Lodge No. 112, on May 15. There were thirty visitors and thirteen members present.

Under good of the order, Sister Trathen, acting Noble Grand, turned the gavel over to Sister Manes, D.D.P., of Wetaskiwin, who proceeded with the district meeting which proved to be very harmonious and instructive.

Along with the business there were several interesting readings and musical numbers given by Sister Holyok of Ponoka, as well as the secret work by Sis. Rasmussen of Wetaskiwin, Past Noble Grand's charge and the Banner Drill from the different lodges.

Business being concluded, Sister Manes then installed Sister May West as D.D.P. for 1945-46 for District No.

9B. This closed the district meeting and the acting Noble Grand then in turn closed the regular meeting of Sunbeam Lodge.

Forty lodge members then enjoyed a very dainty lunch and social hour until 12:30, when the visitors departed for Wetaskiwin and Ponoka by cars and some on the midnight train. Ten members from Wetaskiwin came on the afternoon train, and these were entertained by Sisters May West and Alice Wagner at their homes.

Will Discuss Plans for Memorial Hall

At the May 11 meeting of Hope Rebekah Lodge No. 33, Ponoka, the degree was conferred on Sis. B. Mayer and Sis. Wilson affiliated with our lodge by dismissal certificate from Fern Lodge No. 33, I.O.O.F., of Saskatchewan jurisdiction.

The anniversary proclamation was read and discussed. A committee to meet with the Odd Fellows was appointed.

War Savings Stamp books were distributed and more names added to the list of volunteer workers in the stamp booth. During May the Rebekah lodge was in charge of the sale of War Savings Stamps in Ponoka and district. Sister Cline, P.N.G., and Sister Newton N.G., were in charge.

Ten members from Ponoka attended the spring meeting held in Millet on May 15. Sister May West, P.N.G., was installed as our new D.D.P. We enjoyed the program and the delicious lunch.

Our retiring D.D.P., Sister Manes, chose a very impressive way to remember our departed members. She read the 23rd Psalm—then a minute's silence, followed by the poem, "No One Hears the Door that Opens."

In the afternoon of May 25 the sisters of Hope lodge met at the home of Sister A. Roberts, P.N.G., for a tea in honor of our visitor, Sister M. Gilkes President of the Rebekah Assembly of Alberta.

At the lodge meeting in the evening, Sister West, D.D.P., read her commission and was given the honors of our degree.

Sister Martha Russell, P.N.G., introduced the following who were welcomed and given the honors of our degree, Sister M. Gilkes, Sister May West, D.D.P., Sister L. Goodman, Vice-President, Sister J. Pendleton, P.P.

In honor of our visitors, our degree staff again appeared in their floor-length dresses of white and conferred the degree on two P.N.G. candidates.

Our representative to the Rehabilitation Council reported on the good being done for the service men and women by the council. A donation of $5.00 was made to the rehabilitation council to help with their expenses.

A representative, Sister Koleyak, P.N.G., was appointed to meet with a committee from the Canadian Legion who wish to discuss plans for a Memorial Hall.

Sister Ivy Hickmore, P.N.G., gave a very interesting report of the spring meeting of District No. 9B.

Sister Helen Hickmore is back at work again after having a throat operation. Sister E. Hickmore, P.N.G., is convalescing at home. She is able to be up and about and will no doubt soon be able to be at lodge again.

The Red Cross representative, Sister A. Roberts, P.N.G., mentioned our dates for serving tea at the Red Cross rooms—June 2, 9 and 16.

Sister Hazel Cline, P.N.G., reported that $674 of War Savings Stamps had been bought.

Three baskets of fruit had been sent to Rebekah patients in the mental hospital on Mother's Day. Materials for twelve overseas parcels had been purchased. Several volunteered to help pack and address these parcels.

Sister L. Goodman, V.P., has just returned from making part of her official visits in southern Alberta.

A vote of thanks was given to the property committee for making the table cloths and embroidering the three links in pink and green on each one.

Sister Watt, P.D.D.P., reported on the plans for serving in booths at the Stampede on July 2 and 3. The proceeds will go into the community war chest. Volunteer workers were needed.

Sister M. Gilkes congratulated the degree staff on the manner in which the degree was exemplified. She mentioned that "Friendship" makes a lodge and that we should keep "friendliness" as our aim.

Sister Gilkes was presented with a hand-carved tray by Sister Newton, N.G., on behalf of Hope Lodge.—Miss Hazel Cline.

Regular Meeting of Acme Rebekahs

Prairie Rose Rebekah Lodge No. 111, Acme, held their regular meeting on May 14 in the I.O.O.F. hall. The vice-president of the Assembly, Sister

Goodman, of Ponoka Lodge, made her official visit. The degree was exemplified and a new member taken in.

Sister Goodman gave a splendid talk on lodge work which was enjoyed by all.

A very dainty lunch was served at the close of the meeting. Sister Goodman was presented with a gift as a remembrance of her visit.

The regular meeting of Prairie Rose Rebekah Lodge, Acme, was held May 28 in the I.O.O.F. hall. There was a splendid attendance. Members from Three Hills, Beiseker and Stettler Lodges attended.

Sister Lount, D.D.P., of Rainbow Lodge, Beiseker, installed Sister Reddekopp as D.D.P. for the coming year. The D.D.P. then read her commission.

After lodge was closed all joined in Bingo contests. There also was a fashion parade by brothers and sisters. A dainty buffet lunch was served and a social hour was enjoyed.

Sister Scotland of Magnolia Rebekah Lodge, Stettler, gave a few words. This brought a very pleasant evening to a close.

Install Officers of Rebekah Dist. No. 2

At the ninth semi-annual meeting of Rebekah District No. 2 I.O.O.F., held in conjunction with the regular meeting of Maple Leaf Rebekah Lodge No. 2 on Friday evening, April 13. Sister Myrtle Cundal, P.N.G., of Maple Leaf No. 2, was installed as District Deputy President of Rebekah District No. 2 for the ensuing year.

Sister C. Henderson, P.N.G. of Unity No. 26, was installed as secretary-treasurer. Sister Izetta Foster, D.D.P., presided at the installation ceremony, assisted by Sister McArthur, P.N.G., of Unity No. 26, as Deputy Marshal. We take this opportunity of wishing Sister Cundal a very successful term of office.—Mrs. J. Penman, Sec.-Treas.

Hold Annual Parade Mark Anniversary

More and more we find that the lodges are doing good deeds throughout the country and now, more than ever, since peace in Europe has been declared, we must be prepared to help those who must re-establish themselves, based on our slogan of "Friendship, Love and Truth," for which they have been fighting. Let us not let them down.

On April 29, Cavell No. 56 Rebekahs and Odd Fellows had their annual parade to church in commemoration of the 126th anniversary. A very impressive sermon was delivered by Rev. Geison with a large crowd in attendance. After the ceremony, a dainty lunch was served in the I.O.O.F. hall with ice cream finishing the course.

Our new D.D.P., Sister Doris Oslund, read her commission, after being introduced and welcomed.

At our next meeting there will be another member initiated into our order, so be on your toes everybody, as the degree team must be up to par.

Sister Slocome (nee Mittie Sykes Nushem), back from U.S.A. for a short stay, visited us at our last meeting. A gift was presented to her from the lodge, and we hope to see her back with us again some time.

To top off the evening, a birthday party was in store when Brother Ted Graaftas treated members to ice cream and cake, it being his birthday, but I didn't see any candles. Could it be that there is a shortage or -----? We hope there are a few more birthdays coming up.

Medicine Hat Club

Plans July Picnic

The April meeting of Triple Link P.N.G.'s Club No. 4, Medicine Hat, was held at the home of Sis. Colwell. Sis. Mida Gordon, president, presided. Under good of the order, Sis. Miller read a portion of the book of instruction from the Rebekah Assembly, and it was discussed by the members and questions were asked. It was decided to hold a bean supper on the next meeting night. Sis. Slater offered her home, which was accepted. The members were asked to contribute towards the dinner. Lunch was served by the hostess.

On May 17, the members met at the home of Sis. Slater at 6:30 p.m., where a delicious baked bean supper, topped off with pie, was served. Proceeds from the supper were placed in the funds. A meeting followed. It was decided to hold a picnic in July. Details are to come up at the next meeting. The reading of the book of instruction was completed and discussed by the members. A vote of thanks to Sis. Slater for the use of her home was tendered. A pleasant hour of cards was enjoyed after the meeting.—E.M.

Provost Rebekahs Entertain Guests

One Tuesday, April 17, Provost Rebekah Lodge No. 86 entertained the Provost Odd Fellows and their friends at a very pleasant social evening.

Games, contests and cards were the order of the evening and judging from the sounds of merriment in the hall, all enjoyed themselves to the full.

A most delightful lunch was served by the ladies and the committee in charge were highly commended for their share in the success of the evening.

Though late in getting this news to you, our lodge has not been idle and is just now preparing to initiate two new candidates and looking forward to a visit from our president.—J.L.M.

Progressive Whist Winds Up Program

The May committee of Jewel Rebekah Lodge No. 25, held a Progressive Whist after their regular meeting on May 17. Eleven tables were in play.

Sister H. Sorenson, P.N.G., was the convener, assisted by Sister H. Campbell, P.N.G.

Prize winners were Brother and Sister A. Neumann, Sister Gladys Angerer and Sister Batson, a visitor from Vancouver.

A farewell tea was held May 27 at the home of Sister B. Greenslade in honor of Sister Ethel Nichols who left later for Victoria.

Sister Greenslade was assisted by Sister B. Macdonald, N.G., and Sister Jean Moore, P.N.G.

The guests included Sisters C. Neuman, E. Moffatt and B. Lake, P.P.'s, Sisters E. Mitchell, M. Lee, E. Pen-can, E. A. Douglas, H. Campbell, F. Young, I. Steele, J. Moore, C. Corbett, P.N.G.'s; Sisters F. Neumann, C. Douglas, E. Wallbank, M. Zaparynuk, M. Mitchell, I. Magirl, J. Barber, M. Dinwoodie, A. Corbett, H. Collier, E. Steele and H. Ferguson.

Each guest wrote in an autograph which had been presented to Sister Nichols as a little remembrance.—Clydie Douglas.

ADVERTISE YOUR LODGE

Your Lodge ad in the Lodge Directory page signifies progressiveness and is a mark of respect to your chief officers.

Check your lodge card carefully and see that the names of your officers are listed correctly. If your lodge is not listed there, attend to it at the next meeting night.

President Visits Unity Rebekahs

On Tuesday evening, May 22, Sister M. Gilkes, President of the Rebekah Assembly of Alberta, made her official visit to Unity Rebekah Lodge No. 26.

There was a capacity attendance of members and visiting brothers and sisters present to meet Sister Gilkes.

Our President addressed the gathering in a well-chosen and timely topic. There was much food for thought in the message, which was based on the meaning of Odd Fellowship and the need of closer co-operation, harmony and unity in all our endeavours. Sister Gilkes further stated it is the duty and responsibility of each and every member to do his or her share to promote the work of Odd Fellowship, more so now than ever before, due to prevailing world conditions. "Let us go forward in this endeavour ever ready and willing to co-operate one with the other, for we pass this way but once."

Sister M. Cundal, District Deputy President, of District No. 2, and Brother O. S. Martin, spoke briefly during the evening, stressing the importance of Sister Gilke's message. An impressive degree was conferred by Unity No. 26.

Following the meeting a buffet lunch was served in the lower hall. The head table was decorated in a patriotic motif, having as a centrepiece the flags of all nations and tapers of red, white and blue.

More than 135 friends called at the home of Sister Olive Graham on Wednesday afternoon, May 30, when the War Services Unit of Unity Rebekah Lodge No. 26 entertained at a May-time tea.

A special feature of the tea was the "Apron Bar," and candy table, which was supervised by Mrs. N. McCombs, Mrs. M. Austin and Mrs. F. Harris.

Pouring tea were: Mrs. A. M. Greenslade, Mrs. E. Lepard, Mrs. R. Carmichael, Mrs. M. Cundal and Mrs. A. Batson of Vancouver. Those assisting in serving included Mrs. D. Magee, Mrs. N. Bradley, Mrs. W. D. Phillips, Mrs. M. Stephenson, Mrs. D. Grout, Mrs. I. Stewart, Mrs. E. Haddow, Mrs. O. Vaughan, Mrs. D. Sigsworth, Miss E. Graham and Mrs. M. Eustace. Others assisting included Mrs. G. B. Brock, Mrs. I. Kidney, Mrs. G. Bolton, Miss M. Jones.

Net proceeds of the tea surpassed the $100 mark.

The War Services Unit desire to express through the medium of this publication sincere appreciation to all those who patronized our tea, and to all who donated so generously to make it such a success.—C. E. H.
